President's Message

What started out as a whisper, and then a rumor is now a Capital Campaign! Your CRSPIA board has been mapping out prongs to go forward with the rebuilding the DYAR HOUSE! We have been asked for years when this would happen, and now our answer is: We have a plan, so jump onboard and be on the ground floor to "RISE OUT OF THE ASHES WITH US, ONE STONE AT A TIME!" We have outlined ways to accomplish this, beginning with support from our Superintendent District Ranger, Kevin Best, and the State Park System. CRSPIA is amassing support for this dream with our political officials beginning with our letter of support from Senator Joel Anderson. We are very proud of this support and are now reaching to others for theirs.

At the first part of the year, we became members of a grant writing-assist company which will guide us through the pitfalls of grant writing and help us become successful in that arena. It was then time for a 2 and half day "nuts & bolts" session to budget, plan, and prepare a scope of work needing to be done.

We are now ready to invite all CRSPIA members to our Member Appreciation "Spring Soiree" March 25th, from 4-6pm. All members are welcome to a special presentation about the Dyar House rebuild, and weather permitting, a docent lead tour of the site! Refreshments will be served, No Bar, No Host, but BYOB is welcome. If you are not a member, we would be thrilled if you would join at the door. There is so much excitement coming! Come to a CRSPIA meeting, come to our events, and most importantly, help us get the word out!

Today we resurrect the past, to serve and protect for the future.

The Dyar House at Cuyamaca Rancho State Park: Built, Gone, but Rising Anew!

You are cordially invited to CRSPIA's Spring Soirée

On March 25th in appreciation of our members from 4pm-6pm, we will have a special presentation about the Dyar House rebuild, and weather permitting a docent lead tour of the site! Hors-d'oeuvre (refreshments) will be served, No Bar, No Host, but BYOB is welcome. You may join CRSPIA at the door, if you are not a member.

Please RSVP by March 18th
